5 - Drag and Drop to Stack

"Drag and Drop" can be used to manage the document history (stack). This feature is available to researchers and IRB admin staff. It is not available to IRB committee reviewers.

Note that the stack of papers icon is present next to the "Consent Marked" in package 4, even though the document has not been stacked.

In this example the "Consent Marked" in package 4 should be stacked on the "Consent Marked" from package 2.

5 - Drag and Drop to Stack Cont.

To stack the documents follow these steps:

1. Locate the previous version of the document in the "Documents from Previous Packages" section. Click the stack of papers icon to open the Document Revision History box.
2. Locate the document that needs to be stacked in the "Documents in this Package" section. Right click on the document and drag it to the Document Revision History box until you see the words "Add to this Document History."
3. Release the right click and the document will be added to the document revision history (stacked). The document will now appear as a single line item in Designer.
